SANBORNTON — The Hilltop Restaurant at Steele Hill Resorts has announced the return engagement of "The Rockin' Dadios", on Thursday, February 23.

The evening starts with an all you can eat buffet-styled dinner called "Five Fabulous Food Fads From the 50's", featuring items like Mama's Meatloaf and Gravy. To celebrate an era filled with game shows, guests will be invited to participate in Steele Hill's version of the old "Beat The Clock". Contestants (volunteers from the audience) will be asked to complete various stunts, within a time limit, to win silly prizes. Stunts include "plunger ball" where guests will attempt to catch balls with toilet plungers. Or "egg roll" and "pillow stuff".

Musical entertainment will be provided by the funny men of "Rockin Dadios", starring locals Jim Rogato and "Bo" Guyer, along with Angelo Gentile of Barnstead and well known radio host, Pat Kelly, accompanied by Phil Breton on the keyboard. The Dadios will be singing songs like Good Golly Miss Molly, Peggy Sue, and Johnny Be Good and what 50's night would be complete without a visit from Elvis!

The evening promises to be filled with food, fun, music and lots of laughs, according to organizers Larry Mosbrucker and Becky Guyer of Steele Hill. "We are so excited to be hosting these guys again. They always have the audiences roaring with laughter and put on a great show," said Mosbrucker.

Advance reservations are necessary and can be made by calling 524-0500, extension 0. Ticket price of $24.95 for adults, $10 for children under 10 and includes dinner, games and the show.

Doors open at 5:30 with dinner starting at 6 p.m. and show starting at 7:30.

Belmont apparel designer Mary-Alice Dalton featured on WMUR's New Hampshire Chronicle

BELMONT — WMUR's New Hampshire Chronicle will feature apparel designer and master craftsman, Mary-Alice Dalton on Thursday, February 23 at 7 p.m.

Dalton operates the Children's Couture Showroom & MadCouture Fabric Shop on Rte. 107. Her award-winning line of apparel and accessories for infants to preteen girls features distinctive dresses, ensembles, tops, pants or capris, handbags and hats. In addition, her showroom offers a wide selection of premium 100% cotton fabrics to quilters and home-sewers alike.

"I am fortunate to have this glorious space to work in and welcome the public" said Dalton. "Customers always find the Showroom to be a 'magical' place and realize my children's collections and fabric selections to be very unique from all other retail offerings. So I am honored to have New Hampshire Chronicle spend some time with me at the showroom and present my work to the state."

After 25 years of working in women's clothing, Dalton turned her attention to children's clothing and accessories. This enabled her creative freedom to design and work with color and fabric. Each piece Dalton creates includes details and a high level of craftsmanship. Tiny pintucks, ruffled piping, fabric-covered buttons, handwork, fabulous fabrics and Dalton's design style are the unmistakable signatures of the Children's Couture line.

Children's Couture apparel and accessories and MadCouture fabrics can be ordered directly through the designer's website www.madcouture.com, by phone at 524-8801, or by visiting the Belmont Showroom and Design Studio at 445 Province Road. Hours of operation are: Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. and always by appointment to fit busy schedules.
