Lakes Region Casino hosts free show, comedian Adrian Walker

BELMONT — Famed Key West and Old Orchard Beach R rated funnyman Yo Adrian brings his adult blend of comedy and music to the stage at Lakes Region Casino on Thursday, Sept. 6. The free show starts at 7:30 p.m., with doors opening at 5 p.m.

Adrian Walker has been a fixture at the Old Orchard Beach Pier for the past 20 plus summers. He is best known for the nine months each year he performs on Duval Street in Key West Florida. His humor is adult and his music skills are apparent as he blends comedy and music that has been keeping people laughing for decades.

“It is a great treat for us to be able to bring Adrian back to the Casino,” said General Manager Rick Newman. “We are especially happy to offer this unique show free of charge, this is great opportunity for people who have never seen this truly world class comedian to catch a great show.”

Lakes Region Casino is located on Route 106 in Belmont at the site of the former Lakes Region Greyhound Park.
