

Public safety depts. taking place in Belmont

BELMONT — The town Police and Fire departments will sponsor a Night Out today, Tuesday, Aug. 2, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Belmont Pavilion and Mill.

Events will include opportunities to meet Belmont police officers and firefighters, a vehicle extrication demonstration by the Fire Department, and a K9 demonstration by the Police Department's K9 unit. There will also be child safety seat checks and a healthy living demonstration.

Snacks will be provided by the Belmont Rotary Club, beverages by Coca-Cola, and ice cream by Granite State Dairy Promotion.

There will be games and face painting provided by the Belmont Parks and Recreation Department, as well as tours of emergency vehicles and opportunities to have photos taken with police officers.

Belmont Night Out offers residents an opportunity to meet with local emergency responders and to share ideas about community safety efforts, said Officer Evan Boulanger and Sgt. Adam Hawkins, who are organizing the event in collaboration with town organizations and departments.
