BELMONT — There will be car doors opening and closing, people meandering in search of treasures, and the sounds of unwanted and unneeded items being turned into cash on Saturday, May 16, at 9 a.m.

Individuals, families, civic organizations and school clubs are encouraged to take advantage of this upcoming day of yard sales all over the town of Belmont.

Rent a space for $15 near the Belmont Mill and new Tioga Pavilion on Mill Street, or advertise a home yard sale for $5 and be included on the town map. It's a great way to match treasure seekers with people willing to part with their treasures.

Use this warm weather in the upcoming days to clean out the basement, attic, and garage. Only have a few items? Contact the town offices and they will be happy to let you know what nonprofit organizations are setting up a space so that you may choose to donate your items toward their fundraising efforts.

Maps will be available for $1 each at 8:30 a.m. on May 16 at the Belmont Mill. Shop the central yard sale, and use the map to plan your route for "Treasure Hunting, One Yard Sale at a Time."

For more information, visit the town of Belmont's website at www.belmontnh.org, email events@belmontnh.org, or call Gretta Olson-Wilder, special events coordinator, at 998-3525.
