BELMONT — As the saying goes, “One man’s trash is another man’s treasure.” Come search for your own treasure at the town-wide yard sale in Belmont on Saturday, May 16. Residents, non-residents, civic organizations and clubs are encouraged to rent space near the Belmont Mill on Mill Street (off Main Street). The fee for a space is $15. You may also choose to hold a yard sale at your own home and pay $5 to be included on the yard sale map.

For all of you treasure seekers, the yard sale begins at 9 a.m., in the Belmont Mill parking lot. It’s a great space for such an event and offers plenty of room to roam about the sales tables. You can also purchase a yard sale map for $1 and continue on “treasure hunting, one yard sale at a time” throughout the back roads of Belmont.

If you would like to rent space or would like to add your home yard sale to our map, contact Gretta Olson-Wilder, Town of Belmont Special Events Coordinator at 998-3525, or email events@belmontnh.org.

Forms and other information can be found at www.belmontnh.org.
