

Treasure seekers converge on Belmont this Saturday

BELMONT — Grab a map and start your search for treasure on Saturday, May 14, at the Community-Wide Yard Sale Day in Belmont.

Several participants selling their wares will be set up in the Tioga Pavilion parking lot on Mill Street behind the library on Main Street. This is also where shoppers can purchase their "treasure maps" for $1 each. These maps will list locations to numerous other yard sales around Belmont. To respect homeowners' privacy, maps will be available for purchase starting at 8:30 a.m. the morning of the sales. All yard sales will start at 9 a.m.

"This is our second year, and again we've had a wonderful response to our Community-Wide Yard Sale initiative," notes Gretta Olson-Wilder, special events coordinator for the town of Belmont. "The central yard sale location is not restricted to Belmont residents, so I have some residents of other towns that are joining us. I'm excited to see the day continue to grow, to enhance the offerings of inexpensive events for our residents and visitors to Belmont."

For more information regarding the yard sale day this weekend, contact Gretta at 603-998-3525, email her at events@belmontnh.org (<mailto:events@belmontnh.org>), or visit the town of Belmont website at www.belmontnh.org.
