BELMONT — Sometimes you can find the best bargains by showing up at a yard sale.

Those seeking good deals whether they be everyday items or personal treasures will want to attend the Community Yard Sale Day in Belmont Saturday.

According to special events coordinator for the town of Belmont, Gretta Olson-Wilder, much of the activity will take place in the Tioga Pavilion parking lot on Mill St., behind the Belmont Public Library. Several spots have been rented to local and out-of-town residents who will be selling their wares. The parking lot yard sale at Tioga Pavilion begins at 9 a.m.

Meanwhile, yard sales will take place at other residences in Belmont Saturday. "Treasure maps" will be sold for $1 at the Tioga Pavilion directing persons to the various yard sales around town. The maps will be available for sale starting at 8:30 a.m. All yard sales at town residences will begin at 9 a.m.

Shoppers from all nearby towns as well as Belmont residents are invited to attend the event.

Olson-Wilder commented, "This is our second year of holding a community yard sale, and again we've had a wonderful response from residents of other towns that are joining us. I'm excited to see the day continue to grow, and to enhance the offerings of inexpensive events for our residents and visitors to Belmont."
