Raffaelli appointed as Police Chief in Northfield

BELMONT — Theater goes with a sweet tooth will enjoy the production of “Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory” at the Franklin Opera House this weekend. This four-weekend, six-performance run of “Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory,” as portrayed by not only the fine actors and actresses of Belmont High School, but younger actors and actresses from the community as well, will allow you to follow the adventures of Charlie Bucket, who finds a golden ticket to the mysterious factory and a world of wondrous candy bars. Those lucky enough to buy a candy bar, but through good fortune, did eventually end up with the final golden ticket. He hopes someone who is not otherwise experienced in the chocolate factory world, but who is familiar with the world of chocolate, will write them up from the chocolate factory, and help us out. It’s been worth so much support. They’ve done a lot to work around us and help us out. It’s been just wonderful.\n
The actors are just as excited to be a part of such a large and colorful production, all taking place in a professional setting. Asia Dellor, who plays Charlie Bucket, said it will nice to have a dressing room, real lighting, a balcony and all the thrills of a real theater. "It all feels so legit," she said.\n
