

2016-06-11 / History

Our yesterdays for June 11, 2016

By WARREN D. HUSE

whuse@citizen.com

10 YEARS AGO
from The Citizen

(2006)

After a yearlong absence, the greyhounds would soon be running again in Belmont. The New Hampshire Pari-Mutuel Commission voted unanimously, June 7, to grant Belmont Racing LLC a gaming license for The Lodge at Belmont. The former Lakes Region Greyhound Park would open, June 9, for simulcast greyhound thoroughbred and harness races from some 60 tracks around the country and on June 30 would begin its own schedule of live greyhound racing.