

Belmont American Legion Post 58 will be busy at Old Home Day

BELMONT — American Legion Post 58 in Belmont will have a booth during Old Home Day on Aug. 13 in front of the library on Main Street, starting around 9 a.m.

They will be selling raffle tickets, Kettle Korn and drinks, "These Colors Don't Run" T-shirts, puzzles, bracelets and poppies, all to raise funds for their charitable endeavors. The raffle prizes include a $500 discount on any car at Allen Young's, two of Mo Gouin's unique hand crafted wooden lamps and shades, which normally sell for around $150 each, a $130 cordless drill from Lowe's and a $25 gift card from Home Depot.

The Legion post will also have a booth up on Bryant Field at night, selling pizza and drinks.
