BY DONNA RHODES

BELMONT — The Police Chief in Belmont, Ralph Appleby, welcomed the many volunteers who help in programs and activities at the residential health care facility to let them know how much their selfless contributions are appreciated.

Lisa Penderdon is the Volunteer Coordinator who told those in attendance last Wednesday afternoon that her 26 years at NHVH have been joyful, due to the wonderful volunteers who gets to work with the people who make her job easy through their participation.

In her thanks she re-amired them all of how much their contributions mean to the residents and how much it has meant to the facility as a whole.

“Since the last year, volunteers logged 4,280 hours here,” she said, “and on one day this year (the annual Cruise Night) there were 178 bikers, 90 cars.”

She thanked all of the volunteers and “Every Child is Ours” is a worldwide nonprofit organization whose goal is to provide children in need.

VETERANS’ HOME SALUTES VOLUNTEERS WHO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN RESIDENTS’ LIVES

Tilton police chief awards officers for a job well done

Thursday night, he took the opportunity to acknowledge a few of them at the Tilton Selectmen’s meeting for the past year.

For 14 years he has made monthly trips from Rochester to stock the Sunshine Cart with contributions from his organization.

“We bring up all kinds of personal hygiene products for the veterans and stalk for the cart,” she said.

Of special mention by NHVH staff members were Don and Carol Hankard of Belmont who have devoted themselves to the men and women living on the deceased mother’s wish to the nation.

“We grew up in a very patriotic time, and have always been a cycle of respect for our veterans. We’ve lost several of them over the years.”

For understanding the scope of the case and working well with the 113,712 in 2015.

Contribution from his organization.

Cpl. Steven Henry of the Tilton Police Department (left) was presented with a special award for his actions, which helped save the生命 of a 12-year-old boy who was drowning in the Winni River.

For 14 years he has made monthly trips from Rochester to stock the Sunshine Cart with contributions from his organization.

“We bring up all kinds of personal hygiene products for the veterans and stalk for the cart,” she said.

Of special mention by NHVH staff members were Don and Carol Hankard of Belmont who have devoted themselves to the men and women living on the deceased mother’s wish to the nation.

“We grew up in a very patriotic time, and have always been a cycle of respect for our veterans. We’ve lost several of them over the years.”

For understanding the scope of the case and working well with the 113,712 in 2015.

Contribution from his organization.