BELMONT — St. Joseph Church will be hosting its second Dessert at the Church as part of this year's Belmont Old Home Day activities this Saturday, Aug. 13.

The church hall will be open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and will give Old Home Day visitors a chance to get out of the sun and purchase hot dogs, home-baked goods to eat in or take out, and cool refreshments.

Also on hand will be many craft vendor tables selling denim clothing, stuffed animals, jams and jellies, painted glass, quilts and jewelry. In addition, Phyllis Shoemaker will be selling her bread and rolls and the St. Joseph Crafters will be showcasing the crafts they have been working on throughout the year.

Beyond the dozen or more craft tables, attendees can browse through attic treasure tables. For more information go to www.stjosephbelmont.org (<http://www.stjosephbelmont.org>).

Proceeds from this event will be used to fund programs and projects at the church.
