

DECK THE VILLAGE

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2011 ❄️ 12:30 P.M. – 3:30 P.M.

❄️ ONGOING ACTIVITIES ❄️

Santa's Work Shops (Belmont Mill, Senior Center): Crafts for kids, cocoa and cider for all

Santa's Sweet Shop (Corner Meeting House): Cookie decorating • Sample sweets from some of the best local bakers • Hot and cold drinks • Face painting

Christmas Story Time (Belmont Library): Warm up with favorite tales of the season.

❄️ SPECIAL EVENTS ❄️

12:30 p.m. Festival opens on Belmont Village Green with a performance by the Belmont Elementary School Vocal Ensemble, directed by Jen Shaw.

1:00 p.m. Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus arrive on Mill Street with special friends, including the Belmont High School Marching Band, conducted by Lauren Fountain.

1:15 p.m. Visit Santa for a photo in front of the historic Bandstand. Gifts of non-perishable food items for the St. Joseph's Food Pantry will be gratefully accepted.

3:30 p.m. Santa and Mrs. Claus turn on lights at the Library and depart for North Pole.

Volunteers are welcome 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, December 3rd for indoor/outdoor setup and decorating. Check in at the Corner Meeting House. Outdoor decorators, please bring pruners and gloves. Deck the Village is a partnership effort of many Belmont community elves. For further information, contact belmonthistory@gmail.com. In the event of severe weather, Festival will be held Sunday, December 11th. Check www.belmontnh.org and WMUR-TV.